

Berry & Carr, PC is dedicated to making your visit to our website a pleasant experience in a trusted environment. We know that our clients are concerned about how their information is used. This notice describes how we collect, protect and share information gathered from you.

What personal information about potential clients does Berry & Carr, PC gather?

Information you give us: We receive and store any information you enter on our website; sent by phone, fax, email or USPS. You may choose not to provide certain information. We use the information that you provide for purposes such as responding to your requests, improving our services and communicating with you.

Information from other sources: For reasons such as improving personalization of our service, we might receive information about you from other sources and add it to our account information. We also sometimes receive updated delivery and address information from other sources so that we can update our records and communicate more easily.

What do we do with the information we collect?

We use this information to contact you at your request.

Does Berry & Carr, PC share the information they receive?

Information about our clients is an important part of our business, and we are not in the business of selling it to any one. We do not share your information with any organization or business outside of Berry & Carr, PC. Request may be made by the client to forward information to another party in the instance that we may be associating co-counsel in the handling of your case.
